

Reserve Your Ticket Now for Robert Redford-produced 'Watershed' Film

Thursday, Apr. 04, 2013

iUTAH hosts a screening of the Robert Redford-produced film 'Watershed' Tuesday, April 9, at USU.

iUTAH is Utah EPSCoR's 'Innovative Urban Transitions and Aridregion Hydro-sustainability' project.

As part of the 2013 Spring Runoff Conference at USU, iUTAH, Utah EPSCoR's "Innovative Urban Transitions and Aridregion Hydro-sustainability" project, hosts a screening of the film WATERSHED: Exploring a New Water Ethic for the West Tuesday, April 9.

The screening begins at 7 p.m. in the Eccles Conference Center Auditorium and is preceded by a reception at 6:30 p.m.

Produced and narrated by Robert Redford and directed by award-winning filmmaker Mark Decena, WATERSHED tells the story of the threats to the once-mighty Colorado River and offers solutions for the future of the American West.

Admission is free but attendees must reserve a ticket as seating is limited. To reserve a ticket, visit the iUTAH website. Note: Spring Runoff Conference registrants are automatically registered for the screening and need not reserve tickets.
